State v. Owens (pp. 13-16) (DUI/Circumstantial Evidence)
(unless specifically indicated, reading the notes and questions after the cases is optional)
MPC: Table of Contents and §1.02 | - Overview of Syllabus
- Overview of a Criminal Case (Criminal Law v. Criminal Procedure)
- Sources of Criminal Law |

Written Assignment (5 points): Due in Canvas by 11:59pm on Tuesday, January 16th. Please briefly answer the following questions:
(Any information from your answers that is incorporated into class will remain anonymous. We will review question 7 in class. You are not being graded on whether you answer question 7 “correctly.” You will receive 5 points for this assignment as long as you complete it and submit in on time.)

1) Preferred name (and phonetic pronunciation if your experience is that people mispronounce your name).
2) Pronouns (optional).
3) What is one “ground rule”/guideline you think is important for our classroom environment?
4) What is one criminal case that you are aware of that is of interest to you? (This can be a historical case, a contemporary case, local to you, or that you learned about through national news coverage.)
5) What is one song that you had on repeat that got you through Fall semester (please include the name of the band/artist)?
6) Is there anything else that you would like to share with me about yourself to help me get to know you?
7) This question asks you to arrange events in a criminal case in chronological order (see full question in assignment on Canvas).
