

The Animal Law Society at VLGS Presents

MILES TO GO BEFORE SHE SLEEPS

A DOCUMENTARY SCREENING AND PANEL DISCUSSION

Friday, April 5 • 5 to 8 p.m. ET

Vermont Law and Graduate School
Oakes Hall • Room 012
29 Cameron Way, South Royalton, Vt.

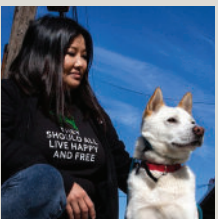

*Light refreshments will be served before the screening.
(Vegan wine and cheese and nonalcoholic beverages.)*

This event is free and open to the public. Free parking is available in the lot next to the river across from Oakes Hall.

Panelists

Faye Yuan
Filmmaker, “Miles to Go Before She Sleeps”

Gina Boehler
Executive Director and Board President, Korean K9 Dog Rescue

Reed Loder
Professor of Law, Animal Ethics, Vermont Law and Graduate School

Siu Tip Lam
Director, U.S.-Asia Partnerships for Environmental Law, Vermont Law and Graduate School

Meet filmmaker Faye Yuan and watch this independent Chinese documentary about an idealistic schoolteacher who lays her life on the line to expose a nationwide dog theft ring that sends thousands of stolen pets to slaughterhouses. With the local police turning a blind eye, an ambush occurs in broad daylight.

Questions?

Contact Vanessa Kranz JD'25 at vanessakranz@vermontlaw.edu or Daria Bednarczyk JD'25/MELP'22 at dariabednarczyk@vermontlaw.edu