

REQUEST TO AUDIT COURSES – Academic Year 2023-2024

Auditing by students enrolled in other colleges or universities and by members of the bar, graduates of other approved law schools, and other persons holding a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution is allowed with the consent of the course instructor under terms prescribed by the instructor, upon confirmation that space is available in the course according to the Registrar's records and upon payment of the required fee. No portion of this fee will be refunded should the professor find it necessary to cancel class and the auditor is unable to attend the rescheduled class. Any certification of auditing of this type shall state that Vermont Law School makes no representation as to the individual's qualifications, attendance, or comprehension of the material.
