CATALYSTS for CHANGE

Vermont Law and Graduate School (VLGS) encourages and empowers students to dream big. It welcomes and shares the passions for social justice, the environment, food equity, criminal justice reform, the fair treatment of animals, and so much more.

At VLGS, realism and idealism collide through data and humanity.

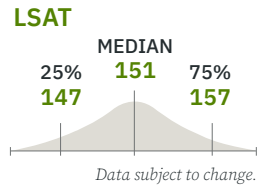

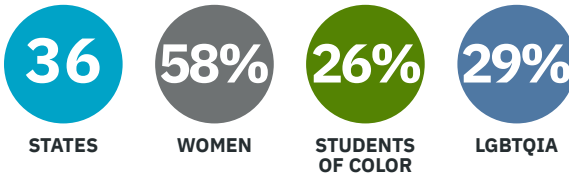

The school community is the facilitator, driving change and, through innovative academic programs, setting the stage to bring together students and faculty who will positively transform the world around them.
